Changeover: President Enid gave a report on her year of office in which she outlined her experiences most of which were enjoyable and will not be forgotten.

How They Forecast a Cold Winter

One day in early September the chief of a Native American tribe was asked by his tribal elders if the winter of 2011/12 was going to be cold or mild. The chief asked his medicine man, but he too had lost touch with the reading signs from the natural world around the Great Lakes.

In truth, neither of them had idea about how to predict the coming winter. However, the chief decided to take a modern approach, and the chief rang the National Weather Service in Gaylord Michigan.

'Yes, it is going to be a cold winter,' the meteorological officer told the chief. Consequently, he went back to his tribe and told the men to collect plenty of firewood.

A fortnight later the chief called the Weather Service and asked for an update. 'Are you still forecasting a cold winter?' he asked.

'Yes, very cold', the weather officer told him.

As a result of this brief conversation the chief went back to the tribe and told his people to collect every bit of wood they could find.

A month later the chief called the National Weather Service once more and asked about the coming winter. 'Yes,' he was told, 'it is going to be one of the coldest winters ever.'

'How can you be so sure?' the chief asked.

The weatherman replied: 'Because the Native Americans of the Great Lakes are collecting wood like crazy.'

New Recruit Joke

A few weeks after a young man had been employed; he was called into the Human Resources administrator's office. 'What is the meaning of this?' the personnel officer asked. 'When you applied for this job, you told us you had three years experience. Now I have discovered this is the first position You've ever held.'

'True', the young man answered with a smile, 'in your advertisement you said you wanted a person with imagination.'

She said her year as President had given her opportunities to be involved in activities that would never have been possible had she not been in Rotary.

Induction of Incoming President Graeme Aspinall:

We then came to the highlight of the evening the “Passing of the Collar of office” to incoming President Graeme who won’t need any training for the job as it’s his 3rd time in the chair. (As they say 3rd time lucky).

Graham gave us an outline of his hopes and aspirations for the year and in particular the fact that 16th of May 2013 marks the 50 year anniversary of the incorporation of the Rotary Club of Fern Tree Gully on the 16 May, 1963.

It is Graeme’s intention that the club has a special celebration to mark the occasion.

Fellowship:

Fun and fellowship was had throughout the night some of it provided by a question-and-answer session run by the chairman of the evening PP Phil Walters, a raffle with 3 prizewinners and topped off by a special treat for members and guests:-

A performance by the “GULLY TRAPS” (otherwise known and advertised as “The Top Knots”—Ed.) (Fran, Julie Graham, Helen, Ian & and Isabella) doing a Black-and-White Minstrel Tap Dance complete with Canes and Top Hats.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It's Saturday morning and I now have a new task each week to prepare a piece for the bulletin; I hope I'm not alone as I would encourage our members to make contributions throughout the year.

Our changeover last week I feel went over very well as I enjoyed it very much. The buffet meal was a different approach for the evening and if anyone had a second serving of the chicken curry I hope you have fully recovered. A rather informal evening with lots of fellowship discussion around the tables. I think I forgot to thank Fran and her group for performing their little soft shoe shuffle act, no doubt many hours of practice was under taken.

To all those who had a part in organising the night thank very much.

On Monday night we get down to the business of setting up our year ahead. It will be a busy year:

- a year of membership growth,
- a greater awareness of FTG Rotary within our community,
- involvement and support of all members,
- fun and fellowship and in May 2013—our 50th anniversary celebration.

As Membership Chair I will be forming a small group to identify and pursue prospects I will be discussing this further at our meeting. I hope to see other Club Chairs presenting their outlook for the coming year also. I look forward to seeing as many as possible at our next meeting ready to start the planning process.

Next Saturday we have a sausage sizzle at Bunning's, I will remind members on Monday what hours you have nominated. Bunning's have advised us they are having a family fun day and to expect higher sales. The new Masters store across the road will be open that weekend and have booked a local group to have a sausage sizzle; let's hope it doesn't detract from Bunning's too much.

Please remember our meeting on 9th July will be a farewell presentation from our exchange student Isabela. This will be a partners night and I hope many will attend to say farewell.
