There was once a great czar in Russia named Rudolph the Red. He stood looking out the windows of his palace one day while his wife, the Czarina Katerina, sat nearby knitting. He turned to her and said, "Look my dear, it has begun to rain!" Without even looking up from her knitting she replied, "It's too cold to rain. It must be sleeting." The Czar shook his head and said, "I am the Czar of all the Russias, and Rudolph the Red knows rain, dear!"

At 7.30 p.m. President Graeme welcomed everyone, commenting it was pleasing to see all but two of our members and their partners present.

Rahul Mediratta and Greg Downes were apologies.

Chairman: Bob Hurst took over control of the proceedings. There were no reports so he passed right on to the Sergeant's session

Fined all those who deserved it—most of the members!

A well cooked Christmas fare dinner was served and enjoyed by all (well, the scribe didn't receive any complaints!)

There was a raffle, Kris Kringle gifts and a lot of talk and laughter. A very enjoyable evening.

President Graeme thanked everyone for coming, reminded everyone there would be two fireside meetings in January and urged all members to attend.

Meeting closed at 10.30 pm. (or thereabouts)

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Well, judging by the photos the Christmas break-up was enjoyed by all. A good night—thank you to everyone for their support.

Steve Barrington of the Foothills Church has asked that his grateful thanks be passed to club members in general, and Fran Mandergeddes in particular, for organising the wonderful array of men's gifts to be given out at the annual Christmas lunch.

May I take this opportunity to wish all our club members and their families a happy Christmas and a safe and prosperous new year.

Graeme Aspinall
President
