WEEKLY BULLETIN

Phil's 'Osophy

I think all presidents, when they reach the end of 'their year' wonder where it went, as there never seems to be time to do everything.

So, where did it go?

Well, after a very busy first half, with lots of club 'stuff', welcoming Barbara to Youth Exchange with Bayswater and many cluster meetings focused on promotion and membership, the second half was, for me at least, pretty busy, with work and personal commitments that took up quite a bit of time. I am grateful to those who stepped in to pick up the pieces.

Next week is Changeover, with PE Mike taking up the mantle on Monday. We all wish him well, and pledge our support in 'his year'.

Thanks to all of our members and welcome again to Christine who joined up during the year.

See you at Changeover.

Phil Walters
President

PROGRAM- Southern Cross Kids Camps

Our guest speakers Liz Green and Craig Schneider
By way of introduction we watched a video showing us what Southern Cross Kids Camps is all about. It enables girls and boys to overcome abuse, neglect and abandonment.

The unique difference of the 5 day camp, is each child has a buddy mentor who is with the child all of the time. The results have shown the child becomes more connected with home and society.

Ten camps are held around Australia and serve culturally diverse communities . There are 250.000 abused children around Australia every year. The camps are designed to change kids' lives.

We watched another video of life at the camps and the activities offered to the children.

Memory books are made for each child to take with them showing the photos of their time spent at camp.

The camps are funded by donations it costs $500.00 per child for a week

SCKC camp mentor and respite programs provide children who have suffered abuse with

- A safe week of happy memories
- Positive adult role models
- A sense of worth and confidence
- Communication and decision making skills
- A new hope in life

Meeting Closed at 8.55pm

OUR FAMILY IN CAMBODIA

The Kim Family

Veurng and her two children, baby Kimly and Teang, are a tight knit and affectionate family. Teang adores little Kimly, helping his mum whenever he can to look after his beautiful baby sister. Since moving into their new home they have collaged their walls, making it the most beautiful house on the block! Teang is an excellent student, referred to affectionately as Teacher Teang by the local children, who he helps with their homework after school. Veurng is incredibly proud of her bright young son, and we look forward to a happy future for the family.
