Jess, daughter of one of our ex-members, Ian, recently attended the annual RYLA camp. An eye opening and very developmental week for Jess. As with all our RYLA candidates, Jess was greatly enthused about this excellent Rotary program.

“MIKE’S MUSINGS....

Hi, all!

Great news, to end a year of massive changes!

PP Paul McAloney has offered to be President-Elect for the remainder of this Rotary year, and thus will be our President in the 2015/16 year. The Club has gratefully accepted his offer at last night’s meeting (and thus will not need to re-cycle me for a third time :-)). Thanks, Paul - be assured you have the complete support of all club members.

On Wednesday evening, the Cluster Presidents are meeting with the firm that organizes all the City of Knox community events, to find out what they are planning, and how Rotary can assist. I will report on the outcomes in the New Year.

Thank you to the members who attended the presentation of the Rotary Junior Community Awards (RJCA in Rotary lingo) at the FTG North Primary School, prior to our meeting last week. Enid, the two G’s, John, Paul and I were all very impressed with the standard of presentation of the Projects completed, and the responses of the “kids”. They have individually progressed marvelously over the period of the project, and this program really expands their knowledge, understanding and personal skills in very tangible ways. It is a program unique to us in our Rotary area, and we owe a lot to the teachers and parents who help the children do so much in a mere 10 weeks of effort. I hope as many or more can get along to the Fairhills Primary School RJCA presentation night from 5-30 – 6-30 next Monday evening, before our Xmas do at the FTG Bowling Club (this is delayed slightly because of the Fairhills event, and will start now at 7 for 7-30).

Speaking of Xmas do’s, the 15th December meeting will be a totally social event, and normal club procedure and roles will be dispensed with. Virginia and Fran organized the Kris Kringle at last week’s meeting, so that will be a success – everyone knows the rules now! We all look forward to seeing members and partners see out the calendar year with a lot of fun and fellowship!

The Board and I extend Season’s Greetings to “you and yours”, and trust you will all be safe and happy over Xmas and New Year. We hope to see you at the Faulkner’s home on the 5th January (BYO everything, I believe!) for our first meeting of the new year.

Remember over the next few weeks to not only enjoy the well-deserved break but also to think about potential new members – then ask them to come along to a Speaker Meeting, and enjoy our renowned RC of FTG hospitality!

Keep well, and happy! TTFN from Mike.

Club members are to remember what meals they order and only receive their ordered meal as there have been a number of mix ups over recent weeks.

Guest Speaker: Jess McFarlane addressed the club on her experience having attended the recent RYLA camp sponsored by our club. The weekend got under way with get to know you games including unusual activities that required teams to work as a team and respect one another. Other activities included, exposure to reptiles which was confronting to some, food challenges being blind folded to identify food types, identifying your values, giving personal presentations, and giving suggestions as to how Rotary could get more participants.

Development areas included - Leadership, Life Skills, Self Awareness, Personal Values, Getting over Fears, Healthy Relationships, Self Esteem, Team Building and Communication.

Jess thanked the Club for giving her the opportunity to attend the camp.

Bob thanked Jess and presented her with a gift.

There being no further business Pres Mike dealt with the housekeeping items and closed the meeting at 9.45pm.
